

Contents

1. Introduction	1
What is the importance of hypertension?	1
How is hypertension defined?	2
How prevalent is hypertension?	3
What are the causes of hypertension?	4
How is BP measurement used to predict CV risk?	4
2. Who and what to test	7
How to identify people with hypertension?	7
What issues should the GP cover during the 10-minute consultation?	9
3. How to manage the patient with hypertension	39
Who to treat?	39
How to treat hypertension?	39
General lifestyle advice	39
BP and hypertension	40
Other prophylactic drug therapies	58
Which patient groups require special consideration?	58
4. Person-centred care	61
How to identify the patient's beliefs about CVD (their concerns and expectations)?	61
What are the patient's cultural beliefs and practices?	61
How to recognise nonconcordance with management strategies?	62
Can concordance be improved?	63
Are any treatments particularly appropriate?	64
5. Applying the evidence	67
What are the implications of the international best-practice guidelines for GPs?	67
Selected landmark studies	68
What are the primary care prescribing options for treating to target in hypertension: a summary	72
When to refer?	72

6. Review and recall	76
What ongoing patient care, monitoring and follow-up are necessary?	76
What roles do other healthcare workers have in managing the patient?	77
What is the role of information technology (IT)?	78
What is the role of the expert patient?	79
Monitoring performance and the quality of care	79
Further reading	80